

NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER OF EVERI HOLDINGS INC.

(As amended effective October 28, 2021)

I. Authority and Purpose

The Nominating and Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of Everi Holdings Inc. (the “Company”) is appointed by the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) to: (a) identify individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, (b) determine the composition, compensation, and structure of the Board and its committees, (c) recommend to the Board the director nominees for the annual meeting of stockholders, (d) establish and oversee a process for assessing the Board’s effectiveness and evaluating its performance, (e) develop and recommend to the Board and implement a set of corporate governance principles, (f) oversee succession planning, and (g) perform a leadership role in shaping the Company’s corporate governance. The Committee shall undertake those specific duties and responsibilities listed herein and such other duties as the Board shall from time to time prescribe. All powers of the Committee are subject to the restrictions designated in the Company’s Bylaws and by applicable law.

II. Committee Membership

The members of the Committee (the “Members”) shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Committee and shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified, or until their earlier resignation, removal, or death. Any Members may be removed or replaced by the Board at any time.

The Committee will consist of at least three Members. Members of the Committee shall meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”), the independence standards requirements established by the Board from time to time, and any other regulatory requirements, as determined by the Board.

III. Structure and Meetings

The Committee shall conduct its business in accordance with this Charter, the Company’s Bylaws, and any direction of the Board.

Unless a Committee Chair (“Chair”) is elected by the full Board, the Members may designate a Chair by a majority vote of the full Committee.

The Committee will meet as often as it determines to be necessary or appropriate, but not less than four times each year, and at such times and places as the Committee or the Chair determines. The Committee may establish its own schedule, which it will provide to the Board in advance. The Chair or a majority of the Members may call special meetings of the Committee upon such notice as is required for special Board meetings in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and if a quorum is present, any action approved by at least a majority of the Members present (in person or by remote communication) shall represent the valid action of the Committee.

Unless the Committee by resolution determines otherwise, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Committee may be taken without a meeting if all Members of the Committee consent thereto in writing and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Committee. As necessary or desirable, the Chair may require that any director, officer, or member of senior management of the Company, or other person whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, be present at meetings of the Committee.

The Chair will preside at each meeting and, in consultation with the other Members of the Committee, is responsible for setting the length of each meeting, establishing the agenda of items to be addressed at each meeting, and conducting the meetings of the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall ensure that the agenda for each meeting is circulated to each Member in advance of the meeting. The Chair of the Committee (or other Member designated by the Chair or the Committee in the Chair's absence) shall regularly report to the full Board on its proceedings and any actions that it takes. The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings, and such minutes will be maintained with the books and records of the Company.

As necessary or desirable, the Chair may invite any director, officer, or member of senior management of the Company, or other persons whose advice and counsel are sought by the Committee, to be present at meetings of the Committee, subject to reasonable efforts to avoid disruption to the Company's business and operations.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate, and may terminate any such subcommittee and revoke such delegation at any time.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities

The Committee shall have the authority and responsibility for:

A. Corporate Governance Policies

1. Developing and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance principles (the "Guidelines") applicable to the Company that shall be consistent with any applicable laws, regulations, and listing standards. The Guidelines shall include, at a minimum, the following:

(i) Director qualifications standards. The Committee shall recommend to the Board director qualification standards, and such standards must reflect, at a minimum, the independence requirements of the NYSE Rules;

(ii) Director responsibilities;

- (iii) Responsibilities of key Board committees;
- (iv) Director compensation, including principles for determining the form and amount of director compensation, and for reviewing those principles at least annually;
- (v) Director access to management and, as necessary and appropriate, independent advisors;
- (vi) Annual Board and committee performance evaluations;
- (vii) Director orientation and continuing education; and
- (viii) Chief Executive Officer selection and succession.

2. Developing and recommending to the Board a code of business conduct and ethics (the “Code”) for directors, officers, and employees, and promptly disclosing any waivers for directors or executive officers. The Code shall include at a minimum the following:

- (i) Rules addressing conflicts of interest;
- (ii) Corporate opportunities;
- (iii) Confidentiality;
- (iv) Fair dealing;
- (v) Protection and proper use of the Company’s assets;
- (vi) Compliance with applicable laws, rules, and regulations (including insider trading laws); and
- (vii) Reporting of illegal or unethical behavior.

3. Reviewing and reassessing periodically, and at least annually, the adequacy and appropriateness of such Guidelines and Code, and recommending to the Board any changes the Committee deems appropriate.

4. Monitoring for compliance with the Code and the Guidelines.

5. Reviewing and reassessing periodically, and at least annually, any potential conflicts of interest concerning the Board and senior executives.

6. Making recommendations to the Board regarding any non-compliance with or waivers to Guidelines or Code, including consideration of possible conflicts of interest of Board members and executive officers.

7. Reviewing and reassessing periodically, and at least annually, changes in legislation, regulations, and other developments impacting corporate governance, including best practices and proxy advisory firm policies and recommendations, NYSE and Securities and Exchange Commission standards, and making recommendations to the Board with respect to these matters.

8. Reviewing and reassessing periodically, and at least annually, the Company's policies related to political contributions and lobbying.

9. Overseeing the Company's corporate responsibility, sustainability, and environmental, social, and governance activities.

10. Reviewing and reassessing periodically the stock ownership guidelines, and administering and applying the stock ownership guidelines applicable to the non-employee directors and covered executives of the Company.

11. In consultation with the Compensation Committee, reviewing and reassessing periodically, and making recommendations to the Board regarding, the adequacy and appropriateness of the Company's Clawback Policy.

B. Board Composition and Performance

1. Reviewing and reassessing periodically the form and amount of cash-based and equity-based compensation of directors, including for service on Board committees, taking into account the compensation of directors at other comparable companies, and making recommendations to the Board regarding any adjustments in director compensation that the Committee deems appropriate.

2. In consultation with the Compensation Committee, reviewing and reassessing periodically, an appropriate peer group or peer groups against which the Company's director compensation program is measured.

3. Overseeing the evaluation of the Board and management on an annual basis.

4. Conducting annual reviews of each director's independence, financial literacy, financial expertise, and making recommendations to the Board based on its findings.

5. Assessing the Board's composition on an annual basis, including size of the Board, diversity, age, skills, and experience in the context of the needs of the Board, and making recommendations based on its assessment.

6. Reviewing the Board's leadership structure on an annual basis and recommending changes to the Board as appropriate.

7. Advising the Board on member qualifications for each Board committee, committee member appointments and removals, committee structure and operations (including authority to delegate to subcommittees), and committee reporting to the Board.

8. Reviewing the composition of each committee of the Board and making recommendations to the Board regarding the creation or elimination of committees.

9. Establishing procedures for stockholders to recommend candidates for the Committee's consideration in accordance with the Company's Bylaws and Charter.

10. Identifying individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, and selecting, or recommending that the Board select, the director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders. As part of this process, the Committee will consider candidates recommended by the stockholders of the Company.

11. Periodically reviewing and recommending to the Board, the skills, experience, characteristics, and other criteria for identifying and evaluating directors. The Board's criteria include: character, integrity, independence, judgment, skills, expertise, knowledge, broad experience in business, finance or administration, familiarity with the Company's industry, prominence and reputation. In addition, the Committee considers diversity of the candidate, whether a candidate has the time available to devote to the work of the Board and, as applicable, the satisfaction of any independence requirements imposed by law, regulation, NYSE Rules, and the Company's Guidelines. The Committee also reviews the activities and associations of each candidate to ensure that there is no legal impediment, conflict of interest, or other consideration, that might hinder or prevent service on the Board.

12. Recommending to the Board nominees to stand for election as directors at the next annual meeting of stockholders. In the case of a Board vacancy, including a vacancy created by an increase in the size of the Board, the Committee shall recommend to the Board a nominee to fill such vacancy.

13. Determining whether to recommend incumbent members of the Board to be nominated for re-election based on the incumbent members' qualifications, performance, and independence.

14. Reviewing directorships at other for-profit organizations offered to directors.

15. Evaluating and recommending termination of membership of individual directors in accordance with the Company's Bylaws, for cause or for other appropriate reasons.

16. Reviewing and recommending to the Board an appropriate course of action in response to the resignation of current Board members.

C. Board Leadership and Executive Officer Succession Planning

1. Advising the Board on candidates for the positions of Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, and conducting investigation of such candidates as the Committee and the Board may deem appropriate.

2. Advising the Board on possible candidates to fill other executive offices of the Company and conducting investigation of such candidates as the Committee and the Board may deem appropriate.

3. Reviewing succession planning for the Board and key leadership roles on the Board and its committees.

4. Reviewing periodically with the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer the succession plans relating to positions held by elected corporate officers and to make recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection of individuals to occupy these positions.

5. Reviewing and reassessing periodically the Company's leadership development strategies, including executive education and development programs.

6. In consultation with the Compensation Committee, overseeing initiatives and metrics in relation to human capital management, including corporate culture, diversity, acceptance and inclusion, and attracting and retaining talent.

V. Performance Evaluation

The Committee shall annually review and assess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval. The Committee shall also perform an annual evaluation of its own performance of its duties under this Charter. The performance evaluation shall address all matters that the Committee considers relevant to its performance, including at least the following: the adequacy, appropriateness and quality of the information and recommendations presented by the Committee to the Board, the manner in which they were discussed or debated, and whether the number and length of meetings of the Committee were adequate for the Committee to complete its work in a thorough and thoughtful manner. The Committee shall report the results of its evaluation to the Board, including any recommended amendments to this Charter.

VI. Outside Advisors

The Committee shall be empowered, without the approval of the Board, to engage or compensate independent legal, accounting, or other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties. The Committee will have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates and to approve such firm's fees and other retention terms. The Committee shall receive appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, from the Company for payment of (i) compensation to any advisor employed by the Committee; and (ii) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
